

SIR CLIVE WOODWARD

Ex-Coach of England
Rugby and
Team GB Executive
Business Coach &
Speaker

Become a member

Already a member?

➤➤ About this course

We often think of leadership as the management of other people but it is also management of self. You can learn how to coach yourself to perform better with Rugby World Cup Winning Coach, Sir Clive Woodward, in this exclusive interactive course.

Master team and self leadership by taking a deep dive into the key characteristics of famously high performing teams and individuals. The course will take you through how to maximise and develop your talent, adopt a teachable growth mindset, deal with pressure and align yourself with your team.

+ Course information

3 weeks | Tues, Thurs
8am PT • 11am ET • 4pm UK | 6 x 1-hour live classes

What impact this course will have

- Understand why talent alone is not enough.
- Use the 'Sponge vs Rock' analogy to become a relentless learner.
- Know how to create a winning mindset.
- Gain the tools to create a winning culture.
- Know how to think correctly under pressure and tackle change.

Class 1 Talent Alone is not Enough

- What are the qualities that define a Champion?
- How to maximise your talent
- How to manage and develop talent

Class 2 Sponge or Rock

- Teachability: Growth Mindset v Fixed Mindset
- How to get better at getting better
- Creating a culture of Relentless Learning

Class 3 Thinking Correctly Under Pressure

- Understand Pressure Triggers
- How to perform better in pressure situations
- Agile Leadership, deal with unforeseen circumstances in a calm and effective way

Class 4 A Winning Mindset

- What does a Winning Mindset look like?
- The importance of Critical Non Essentials
- Success from setbacks

Class 5 Creating a Winning Culture

- Leadership: Vision, Values and Standards
- Teamship: Bring your culture to life through Winning Behaviours
- Partnership: How can I help you?

Class 6 Tackling Change

- Change Thinking and why it is important
- Peer Group Learning
- The power of diverse and inclusive teams

See course dates

Become a member

>>> salesimpact.io

DNA OF A CHAMPION

SIR CLIVE WOODWARD

EX-COACH OF ENGLAND RUGBY AND TEAM GB EXECUTIVE BUSINESS COACH & SPEAKER

Become a member

BIO

Coach and renowned leader, Sir Clive Woodward, is synonymous with two of the Nations most historic sporting achievements—England's 2003 Rugby World Cup victory and Team GB's London 2012 Olympic Games. Clive's tenure as Head Coach saw England move from 6th in the world to the number one ranked team, achieving World Cup glory in 2003.

In 2006 Clive joined the British Olympic Association. As Team GB's Director of Sport he worked with the national coaches and athletes at the Beijing & Vancouver Olympics as well as delivering Team GB's most successful Olympic Games in the modern era at London 2012. Clive is currently the Founder and Chairman of Hive Learning – an app that has digitised Clive's coaching methods and is designed to help people learn better together in business and sport.